

HEARD BY CENTRAL

"Hello! Who's speaking?"

"This is E. O. Hall & Son."

"E. O. Hall & Son! Why, I thought you were burnt out of business."

Out of business? Not by a jug full. We have bought out the Pacific Cycle Co., next door to Ehlers', and have just received 150 Columbia, Cleveland and Rambler Bicycles, besides a full line of shelf hardware. Things look like a large-sized beehive down here, and we want you to come around to see us.

GYMNASIUM CLASSES.

The physical department of the Y. M. C. A. opened yesterday afternoon. While the attendance of the boys was not very large, Mr. Brock, the gymnasium instructor, believes that he will have a very large class in a few days. There is always slowness in the beginning when the classes are first being formed.

The class for business men will start today at 4:30 o'clock and will last until 5:15. It is hoped that the business men of the city will turn out in good numbers. There is already promise of quite a large attendance.

The Bulletin, 75 cents per month.

SHIRT WAIST COLLARS

STYLE AND COMFORT COMBINED : : :

Be Advised and Try One

"MY DEAR" said the groom, "Why do you insist on turning in the neck of your shirt waist like that? It isn't at all artistic." "Because, John, it's so hot here," said the bride, "And, besides, low neck is all the style in the East now."—Two good reasons; true ones, too; but we wonder if that bride had been introduced to the SHIRT WAIST COLLAR. Made of dainty laces and ribbons, it can be worn with any shirt waist, adding prettily to the appearance of that garment, and taking away the unfinished look which it has when the neck band is merely folded in. They don't cost much either. A dollar will enable you to try the experiment.
